11th Regiment, Texas Cavalry

Organized May, 1861 in Grayson County, TX with 855 men.

It was one of the best in service of the CSA, active in Indian Territory and Arkansas before moving east of the Mississippi River and fighting at Richmond and Murfreesboro.

It was then assigned to Wharton's and Harrison's Brigade and fought at Chickamauga, Knoxville, and Atlanta. It then defended Savannah and was active in Carolina campaigns.

Only a remnant was available to surrender 26 April 1865.
