Family: Son of J. Clarence Hurley and Alice. The family moved to Carrollton, TX when he was around 13 yr old. He was raised with 8 other siblings: 4 brothers and 4 sisters. He got his nickname, Shuck, after the family mule. Some stories are because as a little boy his hair stuck up just like the mule's, but some believe it was because he was as stubborn as the mule. It was that stubbornness and determination which got him through life and made him the man he was. On 30 Apr 1960 Harley married Joyce Christine Lester in Dallas, Texas. They had two daughters, Renee and Vicki. Their son was Scott. He also had 11 grandchildren and great grandchildren combined.

Military: Harley served in the Marines from 1954 – 1956. In April 1956 , he is found documented in a unit diary at Casuals Casco H and Sbn, Mcrdep San Diego Calif.

Civilian: Harley owned a custom countertop company; and was also a painter. He enjoyed hunting and fishing.
